Father Ken's Note...

Memorial Day

In 1967, "Memorial Day" became the official title of the somber holiday we observe on the last Monday of May. Across our country, ceremonies will take place at all 141 national cemeteries in the United States, and 24 others on foreign soil. More than 3 million soldiers, sailors, airmen, Marines and Guardsmen are interred in these hallowed burial grounds. In words written on stone markers, military cemeteries tell the story of who we are as a people.

Since 1776, more than 1.5 million Americans in uniform have given their lives for the cause of freedom during battle. Regardless of when they served or how they died, all the heroes interred in our national cemeteries and elsewhere sacrificed for their country. To selflessly serve a higher cause, they gave up the comforts of home and the warmth and affection of loved ones.

In his inaugural address on January 20, 1961, President John F. Kennedy said: "We shall pay any price, bear any burden, meet any hardship, support any friend, oppose any foe to assure the survival...of liberty." On this Memorial Day, we remember and honor the American patriots who paid the price, bore the burden, and met the hardships to assure the survival of liberty.

There are few things more selfless or noble than sacrificing one's life for a higher cause, particularly when that cause is the freedom and security of our fellow Americans. This is the reason the day is set aside to honor our military heroes who gave what Abraham Lincoln called their "last full measure of devotion" in defense of freedom.

Although Memorial Day is a day of remembrance, it is also a day for remembering and giving thanks. General George S. Patton said it best: "It is wrong to mourn the men and women who died. Rather, we should thank God such men and women lived." Indeed, we should. America has survived as a nation for 247 years because brave men and women are willing to die for an idea; the idea that God granted them, in the words of Thomas Jefferson, "certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness."

Eternal Rest, grant to all of our deceased military, O Lord, and may perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, rest in peace.

If inclement weather, procession will be held on Thursday, June 15. Reservations are not necessary, and all are welcome. We hope you can join us!

NKCC HOME MASSES

Our home Mass hosts are ready! Returning for a second summer are the NKCC Summer Home Masses sponsored by the NKCC Parish Council! Last summer we gathered spiritually and socially at the homes of NKCC parishioners for an early evening Mass and potluck meal. They were a great success thanks to our hosts, our priests, and all who attended! It is a special way to get to know each other.

The dates for this summer are Wednesdays June 28, July 26 and August 23 beginning at 6:00 PM. The first Mass on June 28 will be at the same location as last summer, Rabbit Foot Condo location. After Mass, we will share a meal of baked and fried chicken (supplied by the parish) plus your side dishes. Bottled water will be provided. Please bring your own lawn chair.

If interested in attending the June Home Mass, contact Lorraine Menk for the address at 724-339-9531 or kirbie1@comcast.net. Please let her know the number attending, and what you plan to bring for the potluck dinner. Your parish council looks forward to our time together.
