Father Ken's Note...

Congratulations Father Dino and Father Roselo on your promotions—We will miss you both.

As you are aware, Father Dino and Father Roselo received a call last week from Bishop Kulick. For many, this particular call makes most priests apprehensive. On answering the call and traveling to the Bishop's office in Greensburg, Father Dino and Father Roselo were given promotions. I am very happy and proud of both, and I am glad that a major part of their United States experience will include the joy and gift of being a pastor; in both cases, they will be pastors of two parishes.

Father Dino will be the pastor of Saint Simon and Jude Parish in Blairsville and Good Shepherd Parish in Kent. Father Roselo will be the pastor of St. Anne Parish in Rostraver and Holy Family Parish in West Newton. I am sure that I speak for all in hating to see both leave our parishes. I also am sure that I speak for all in knowing that the moves for both tempers our disappointment with the joy that their U.S. and Diocese of Greensburg ministry will continue to blossom as they take on the role of pastoring not one but two parishes. Father Dino and Father Roselo, may our good God keep you both in His loving care.

P.S. Father Dino and Father Roselo will offer a note of their departing thoughts in the August 26 bulletin.

Congratulations, Deacon J.T. Tuskan!

On Thursday, August 10, Mount Saint Peter parishioner, J.T. Tuskan, was ordained to the permanent diaconate for our diocese. Deacon Tuskan is a great fellow, fine husband and father, and will be a strong addition to the clergy in our Diocese of Greensburg.

Deacon Tuskan will be the homilist at the 8:30 AM and 10:30 AM Masses at Mount Saint Peter on Sunday, August 20. Please join me in congratulating Deacon Tuskan and keep him in your prayers as he starts his diaconate ministry in our diocese.

Father Ken

The Saint Anthony Guild requests that all parishioners of the New Kensington Catholic Community prayerfully considers supporting one of our community's children as they head back to school. Every child deserves a backpack, school supplies, and new tennis shoes to help start the school year off on the right foot. The Guild has been proud to organize the NKCC efforts in supporting the students attending Mary Queen of Apostles and the New Kensington Arnold School District, and we are asking for your assistance once more.

Financial donations can be submitted to the Parish Office, placed in the offertory baskets or handed in the weekend of August 19 and 20 after Mass at all main doors at Mt. St. Peter Church.

POLISH PLATTER PLANNING MEETING

There will be a meeting in Friendship Hall on Tuesday, August 15 at 6:30 PM to plan our annual Polish Platter Dinner. We will not officially announce the date of the Polish Platter Dinner until we know there are sufficient volunteers to staff the committees needed such as Dining Room, Raffle Sales, Basket Raffle, Take-out, etc.

We are looking forward to seeing you there!
