NEW YEAR, NEW BIBLE STUDIES!

Acts: The Spread of the Kingdom begins Tuesday, January 9-May 28, 2024 from 11:00 AM-12:30 PM in the Freude Room at St. Margaret Mary Parish. Acts is the story of how a few Christians, empowered by the Holy Spirit and how they brought Good News to the ends of the earth. They faced secular forces, internal strife, and hostile crowds, and despite all of this, they brought the kingdom of God to a broken world, and the love of God to the hearts of men. Acts traces how the gospel witness spread outward in waves from Jerusalem and reveals how the seeds of the Church structure and authority took root. This study shows how the joys and struggles of the early Christians in living the life of Christ apply to us today. It will help you to see your place in the Church as a disciple of Christ.

Lectio: The Gospel of Mark begins Thursday, January 11-April 18, 2024 from 1:00 PM-2:30 PM in Peter's Table at Mount Saint Peter Disciple Center. Join in this powerful 14-part series to discover the Gospel of Mark like never before. Immerse yourself in this action-packed Gospel that offers Saint Peter's account of Christ's life and teaching. This Lectio series uses the Church's rich tradition of Lectio Divina to help you better understand and better pray with the Gospel of Mark.

Father Ken's New Year Note

GET READY, THE NEW YEAR IS UPON US!

The old year coming to its close is full of memories and regrets. When we look back, we often wish we could live the days over again with the wisdom of hindsight. We would have done so much better. Time wasted could have been turned to better account. Angry words would have been so much better unsaid. We wish we had spoken up for what we believed at the times when we were silent. We know it was sheer betrayal of Christ when we ignored a summons of responsibility.

Nevertheless, the past is dead and nothing can resurrect it. "The moving finger writes" and, having moved on, nothing can change what was written. Nevertheless, there is much to be learned from our regrets. If we wasted valuable time yesterday or the day before, we can learn to use time creatively today and tomorrow. If we spoke in anger, devoid of self-control, we need not repeat the folly now. If in anxious fear we were silent when we should have defended our faith, we can speak out for the truth as we see it in the days to come.

Yesterday or yesteryear are no measure of what tomorrow can be. The Christian faith has been described as the "gospel of the second chance." It is precisely that. We are judged not in terms of what we did yesterday, but rather in terms of our moral recovery. The New Testament has much to say about "repentance." The word "repent" in the Greek means simply to "turn around and go the other way." We are judged in terms of our willingness to "turn around and go the other way."

If the regrets of the year that is nearly done inspire us to make a "U-turn" with courage and hope, the past we have known can be a boon to the present. When the Prodigal Son "came to himself" and turned homeward after wasting his life in a far country, he was forgiven. He made a new start and found life as it was meant to be. We all have a second chance, even a third and fourth, to make a "U-turn" in our lives.

If we are burdened by regret, O God, grant us courage to change the direction of our lives. Renew a right spirit within us and guide us in the way of everlasting peace. Amen.

2024, thank you for giving me a new chance, a new opportunity to start over again, fresh.

Father Ken

Most Holy Family,
we consecrate ourselves and our family to you.
May we be completely united in a love that is lasting,

Help us to grow in virtue, to forgive one another from our hearts, and to live in peace all our days.
