Father Ken's Note

Each Day is a Gift.

A 92-year old delicate, but well-poised and proud man who is fully dressed each morning by eight o'clock, with his hair fashionably coiffed and his face shaved perfectly, even though he is legally blind, moved to a nursing home today. His wife of 70 years passed away, making the move necessary. After many hours of waiting patiently in the lobby of the nursing home, he smiled sweetly when told his room was ready.

As he maneuvered his walker to the elevator, the nursing assistant provided a visual description of his tiny room, including the eyelet sheets that had been hung on his window. "I love it," he stated with the enthusiasm of an eight-year-old having just been presented a new puppy. "Mr. Jones, how can you be excited, you haven't seen the room", said the nursing assistant. Mr. Jones replied, "Seeing the room with my dimming eyes has nothing to do with it. Happiness is something you decide on ahead of time. Whether I like my room or not doesn't depend on how the furniture is arranged—it's how I arrange the furniture in my mind. He continued, "I already decided to love my room. It's a decision I make every morning when I wake up. I have a choice; I can spend the day in bed recounting the difficulty I have with the parts of my body that no longer work, or get out of bed and be thankful for the parts of my body that still do work. Each day is a gift. As long as my eyes open, I'll focus on the new day and all the happy memories I've stored away. Just for this very moment in my life.

Each Day Is A Gift.

Father Ken

AVAC FAMILY PROMISE HOUSE NEEDS....CAN YOU HELP?

For several years, volunteers from the New Kensington Catholic Community (NKCC) have been assisting the Allegheny Valley Association of Churches (AVAC) with meals for families who are in transition toward permanent homes. Now that AVAC's Family Promise House is set to open in Brackenridge, the organization is seeking new or very gently used necessities to outfit this shelter and the families who will be living there temporarily.

Women's deodorant

Twin sheet sets (including top and bottom sheet, pillowcase)

White or black T-shirts of all sizes (child to adult)

Ethnic hair care products

Car/booster seats

Women's shavers and shaving cream

Bathroom rugs and shower curtains

Sweatpants of all sizes (child to adult)

Bed pillows

Baby wipes and diapers of all sizes

Drop off these donations in the Mt. St. Peter Chapel entrance, Narthex of St. Joseph and St. Mary of Czestochowa marked for AVAC Family Promise. Donations of small-value gift cards to grocery stores, movie theaters, restaurants and gasoline will be accepted at the NKCC office. Volunteers will also be needed to cook meals for the families and to interact with the parents and children.

Any questions, please feel free to email the shelter manager: jessmango14@gmail.com.
